

6516206915.txt

I am a loyal XM subscriber and i believe that if broadcast radio is ever going to compete with satellite radio they need to change their formats and stop trying to censor the truth with people like howard stern. We have a right to freedom of speech and all the FCC does is try to hard and censor people that have an opinion that doesn't favor theirs.